Ok, since our gear isn't exactly up to par, we will be trying to get better gear before attempting Kara. We will be running the remainder of the Kara key fragments (fragment 2 and 3) this weekend to get as many as we can the remaining fragments. What comes after that is Dunrholde Keep and Black Morass to actually get the Kara key. Let's see how far we get this weekend. I will go ahead and post times on the calendar. Remember this is not server time but Eastern US time.
